DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's Response filed 3-26-03 (Paper No. 11) is acknowledged. However, in view of newly added claims 19-24, a restriction requirement is being applied.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 7-11 and 22, drawn to an isolated polynucleotide encoding a fusion polypeptide, wherein said fusion polypeptide is capable of forming a stable homodimer, classified in class 536, subclass 23.5.
 - II. Claims 11 and 19-21 and 23-24, drawn to an isolated polynucleotide encoding a fusion polypeptide, wherein said fusion polypeptide comprises an oligomerization domain that will not bind to itself, classified in class 536, subclass 23.5.

Note: claim 11 will be examined only to the extent of the elected invention.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Groups I and II are unique products. They fusion polypeptides encoded by the polynucleotide of Group I differs from that of Group II because the polynucleotide of Group I encodes a homodimer, while the polynucleotide of Group II encodes a heterodimer. Art that reads on a homodimer will not necessarily anticipate or be obvious over art that reads on a heterodimer. Therefore, Groups I and II are patentably distinct.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and because a search in the non-patent literature of any of these distinct inventions would not be co-extensive with a search of the others, an examination and search of two or more inventions in a single application would constitute a serious undue burden on the Examiner, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Regardless of the Group elected, Applicant is required to elect a polynucleotide that encodes a specific oligomerization domain, such as the leucine zipper domain recited in Claim 22. These species are distinct because each species has a distinct structure that confers distinct functional properties that would not be obvious over one another.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 7-11 and 19-21 and 23-24 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1644

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
